Marine Lt. James Byler with his Dad Phil Byler

Portion of Proceeds to benefit...

U.S. Marine First Lt. James Byler

While stationed in Sangin, Afghanistan serving our Country as a Marine Infantry Platoon Commander, Lt. Byler stepped on an improvised explosive device which led to the loss of both his legs and injury to his hands. He is recovering from his wounds and working towards being fitted with prosthetic legs. Money raised will help defray expenses for James and his family.

Any donations over and above the sponsorship involvement or golfers fees will go directly to Lt. James Byler Fund.
